

EKEPEK participates to the webportal “ Dialogue for Europe ” initiated by the Jean Monnet European Centre of Excellence of the University of Athens, with the support of the European Commission. This initiative aims at facilitating access to information on issues and activities of European concern for the civil society and the academic community.